

Bags of Hope Food Pantry
4191 Murray Highway
Hardin, KY 42048

Bags of Hope Food Pantry is a ministry of the Blood River Baptist Association that provides food and clothing assistance to Marshall and Calloway Counties. The Association is comprised of 42 churches in the surrounding area.

Families/Individuals in Marshall and Calloway counties are allowed to use the food pantry once a month. Since opening at its current location in September, 2014, Bags of Hope Food Pantry has provided assistance to nearly 800 local families.

Bags of Hope Food Pantry is located at the main intersection in Hardin, KY. (Highway 402 & Route 1824) The food pantry is open on Mondays and Thursdays from 2PM till 5PM.

Bags of Hope Food Pantry is supported by donations from individuals, churches, and organizations. We are asking that our parish family here at Saint Henry contribute to this ministry. Any donations are greatly appreciated. You may bring food/clothing donations to the church and leave them in the container located in the narthex or you can also drop off items at the parish office during the week. Office hours are Tuesday-Friday 9:00AM-1:00PM. As inventory levels change, the pantry may request donations of specific items and we will list the items in our Sunday Bulletin.

We are also looking for volunteers to transport donated items from Saint Henry to the pantry. If you are able to assist, please contact Sally in the parish office.
